VACHAN PRERNA DIVAS,

Vachan Prerna Divas, celebrated on 16th October each year, is an occasion to pay tribute to the great scientist and former President of India, Dr. APJ Abdul Kalam. It serves as a platform to promote reading and the dissemination of knowledge among the youth, emphasizing the significance of education and self-improvement. In 2023, the celebration of Vachan Prerna Divas was marked by a meaningful collaboration with Kanya Vidyalaya, an all-girls educational institution, to empower and inspire young girls through the joy of reading. Collaborative Reading Sessions: As part of this special collaboration, various reading sessions were organized in Kanya Vidyalaya, Pimpri Pune featuring excerpts from Dr. Kalam's books and speeches. These sessions were designed to inspire young girls and provide them with insights into Dr. Kalam's life and values during this we encourage reading among the students, generous book donations were made to Kanya Vidyalaya by local community members, educational organizations, and government initiatives. This effort aimed to provide students with a wider range of reading materials and resources. Essay writing competitions were organized, focusing on themes related to Dr. Kalam's vision for a better India and the role of education in achieving that vision. These competitions provided a platform for students to express their thoughts and ideas. A significant focus of the collaboration was the enhancement of the school library. New books, educational resources, and reading corners were introduced to create an inviting and enriching space for students to read and study. Eminent speakers and educators were invited to deliver guest lectures at Kanya Vidyalaya, sharing their insights on the life and achievements of Dr. APJ Abdul Kalam. These sessions served as a source of inspiration for the students. The focus on reading and access to books through book donations and library enhancements contributed to improved literacy levels and

Title of Activity- To aware people about food adulteration

Food adulteration is an evolving concept due to increased detection methods for contaminants as well as the growing opportunity for fraudsters to profit from the acts (expanding global markets). The food adulteration risks are being considered from sources across the food protection spectrum including food quality, food safety, food fraud, and food defense. Any food product that is a public health threat is classified as the effect of adulteration though there may be many different types of causes or motivations. Food fraud is a broader term that includes the cause of motivation of the incident. To stay ahead of the growing scope, scale, and threat, new countermeasure approaches are being developed to more efficiently and effectively detect and deter. So aiming this we have chosen extension activity to create awareness about food adulteration in people. Through this activity we make people aware about the quality of the food they consume. Food adulteration is quite common in the developing countries and it refers to the process by which the quality or the nature of a given food is reduced through addition of adulterants or removal of vital substance.

Adulteration in food is done either for financial gain or due to carelessness and lack of hygiene during processing, storing, transportation and marketing. The ultimate result is that the consumer is either cheated or often becomes a victim of diseases. Our team of T. Y. B. Sc. Chemistry students under the guidance of Chemistry department faculties has set the experiments showing the adult rants are added in variety of food which we consume every day. Students visited different areas in PCMC and shown this experiments to people on 18th April 2024. So the people become aware about it and also explained the hazards of it on human being.

Report on Ocean Day Celebration by Mahatma Phule Mahavidyalaya Pimpri's NCC Unit of 1 Mah Sig Coy Pune

Date: June 13, 2023

Introduction:

On the occasion of Ocean Day, the NCC Unit of 1 Mah Sig Coy Pune from Mahatma Phule Mahavidyalaya Pimpri organized a special activity to celebrate and raise awareness about the importance of oceans and water bodies. The activity aimed to promote environmental conservation and cleanliness. A total of 14 cadets actively participated in the event, which was carried out near the Indrayani River in Dehu Gaon.

Activity Details:

Under the guidance and supervision of Lieutenant Prasad Bathe, Vice Principal Mrinalini Shekhar, and Vice Principal Shahaji More, the cadets engaged in a clean-up drive of the water bodies near the Indrayani River. The primary objective was to remove waste and debris from the river and its surrounding areas. The activity began early in the morning and continued throughout the day.

Clean-up Process:

The cadets demonstrated great enthusiasm and dedication as they diligently cleaned the water bodies. Equipped with appropriate cleaning tools and safety gear, they worked in teams to cover different sections of the riverbank. The cadets meticulously collected various forms of waste, including plastic bottles, wrappers, and other non-biodegradable materials.

Jalparni Collection:

As part of the activity, the cadets also collected jalparni (floating vegetation) from the river. Jalparni is known to affect the ecological balance of water bodies, and its removal contributes to the overall health of the aquatic environment. The cadets carefully removed the jalparni and ensured its proper disposal, preventing any further harm to the river ecosystem.

Awareness and Education:

In addition to the clean-up efforts, the NCC unit organized small educational sessions to raise awareness about the significance of oceans and water bodies. The cadets highlighted the adverse effects of pollution on marine life and the importance of maintaining a clean and healthy environment. These awareness sessions served to instill a sense of responsibility and eco-consciousness among the participants and the local community.

Conclusion:

The Ocean Day celebration by Mahatma Phule Mahavidyalaya Pimpri's NCC Unit of 1 Mah Sig Coy Pune was a resounding success. The participation of 14 cadets in the clean-up activity near the Indrayani River showcased their dedication to environmental conservation. The event not only contributed to the cleanliness of the water bodies but also educated the cadets and the local community about the importance of protecting our oceans and water resources. The guidance provided by Lieutenant Prasad Bathe, Vice Principal Mrinalini Shekhar, and Vice Principal Shahaji More played a crucial role in ensuring the smooth execution of the activity. Such initiatives foster a sense of responsibility and inspire future generations to actively participate in environmental conservation efforts.
