

3. Tourism Development and Its Effects on Rural Development in Shirgaon Village of Maval Tahsil in Pune District of Maharashtra, India

Dr. Rajesh Birajdar

Assistant Professor, Rayat Shikshan Sanstha's. Mahatma Phule Mahavidlaya, Pimpri, Pune-17.

Mr. Sanjay Savalaram Nangare

Research Scholar, Ramkrishna More ACS College, Akurdi, Pune.

Mr. Dattatray Pandurang Mane

Research Scholar, Tilak Maharashtra Vidyapeeth, Gulatekadi, Pune.

Abstract

Tourism as a most important role for the development of rural areas because its help for the development of hotels, road, Stander of living and there amenities also it is supply job opportunities for the living people. This paper focus on attract of people in various places in Maharashtra and other state Maharashtra in Tourist centre of Shirgaon village and its effect on growth of their amenities and Assessment of socio-economic.

The study was carrying out on the basis of primary data including the field survey, secondary data and computer based technique. This paper represents the assessment of social environment like, caste status, educational status, occupational status and interaction between different places in India in Shirgaon Tourist Place with help of District wise Distribution of tourist, Caste wise tourist, Profession of Tourists, Education wise tourist, Income group of tourists.

Key Wards: - Field Survey, Spatial Analysis, Maps, graphs, Tables and Various statistical techniques.

1. Introduction

Tourism is the world's largest industry. Today's 10 percent global population is directly related to tourism activity. It is giving us an opportunity to learn and enrich humanity and to identify what may be term as goal for better life and better society. It is generating employment for the society on large scale. Tourism is the temporary short term movement of people to destination, outside the place where the normally live and work including their activities during